His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in Writing and Laying the said anonimous threatening Letter in the Court-Yard of the House of the said William Paston, as aforesaid, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices, in the said Crimes, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And as a further Encouragement the said William Paston does, hereby, promise a Reward of Twenty Five Guineas to the Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid by him, upon the Conviction of any one, or more of the Offenders.

William Paston.

St. James's, June 28, 1765.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That Thomas Cocker otherwise Coaker, and Francis Lock, with divers other Persons unknown, to the Number of Three Hundred and upwards, (as was supposed) did, on the Seventeenth Day of this Instant June, unlawfully and riotously assemble together in the Village of Bolham within the Parish of Tiverton, in the County of Devon, to the Disturbance of the Publick Peace; and did, then and there, unlawfully and with Force, begin to demolish, and did demolish, break open and beat down, the Windows, Doors and other Parts of the Dwelling-House, there situate and belonging to John Webber, Esq; Mayor of the Corporation of Tiverton; and did also, then and there, threaten to kill and murder the said John Webber, if they could have found him; and did also, then and there, unlawfully and riotously assault and ill-treat Susannah Symmons, and other Servants of the said John Webber, and also greatly damage, injure and destroy the Furniture, Goods, and Effects of the said John Webber, which were then in and about the said Dwelling-House; and did also pull down and destroy several Cloth-Tontors or Racks in a Field adjoining to the said Dwelling-House; and did also break and destroy the Windows of other Dwelling-Houses in the said Village of Bolham, occupied by Edward Blagdon and Thomas White: His Majesty, for the the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Thomas Cocker otherwise Coaker, and Francis Lock, or either of them, or any others concerned in the said Riot, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Rioters who shall discover the said two Persons above-named, or either of them, or any others concerned in the said Riot, so that he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

DUNK HALIFAX.

And as a further Encouragement, the said John Webber, the present Mayor of Tiverton, does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by him, upon the Conviction of one or more of the said Rioters. John Webber.

Whitehall, June 29, 1765.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That a sudden and dreadful Fire broke out on Saturday Night last, about Eleven o'Clock, at Gun Dock, Wapping, by which a Sail Maker's Warehouse, and above Twenty Dwelling Houses were totally consumed; and that there is great Reason to believe, that the same was wilfully set on Fire: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of this wicked Action, is pleased hereby to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually set the Premisses on Fire) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SANDWICH.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Minister, Church-wardens, Overseers of the Poor, and Principal Inhabitants of the Parish of St. John of Wapping, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons making Discovery of the Party or Parties guilty thereof, (except as before excepted) to be paid by the Church-Wardens of the said Parish, on the Conviction of any one or more of them.

Admiralty-Office, June 15, 1765.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery, for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Tuesday the the 9th of July next, at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight o'Clock in the Morning.

Ph. Stephens.

Admiralty-Office, June 15, 1765.

Whereas my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have received authentick Information, That on the 30th of January last, about Nine o'Clock in the Morning, as a Ship called the Elizabeth of Dunkirk, Adrian Frederick, Master, was sailing from thence, bound for Bourdeaux, the said Ship was piratically and feloniously attacked on the High Sea near Pavensea, by two English Shallops or large Boats, the Crews of which by Force plundered and robbed the said Ship Elizabeth of several Chests of Merchandize to a very considerable Value, in Violation of the Laws of Nations.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of the said Piracy and Robbery, are pleased to promise a Reward of One Hnndred Pounds unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within Three Months from this Time, discover any of the Offenders guilty of the above-mentioned Offence, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of the said Offenders, who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any one or more of the said Offenders.

Ph. Stephens.

General Post-Office, June 11, 1765.

To the PUBLIC.

AS it is our earneſt Deſire to aſſiſt the noble and diſintereſted Intentions of John Page, Eſq; in extending the Benefits of the late Mr. WARD's Medicines to the Poor; and as the Expence of the Sale of the Book of Receipts publiſhed by Mr. Page, may prevent the Knowledge of the Excellency of theſe Medicines falling into the Hands of inferior Perſons, who may ſtand in the utmoſt Need of their Aſſiſtance, we have reſolved to publiſh Extracts from the ſaid Book of the Efficacy and Benefits of the ſaid Medicines, which will be given Gratis to all Perſons applying to

Mr. Withy, Book and Printſeller, at the Dunciad, near the Royal Exchange, Cornhill; or to

Mr. Marſh, Bookſeller, at Charing-Croſs;

Where the Medicines are ſold, and no where elſe in London; and by the Venders in the Country, appointed by Certificate from us.

And though it has been often inviduouſly remarked, that Advertiſements of Mr. Ward's Medicines, ſaid to be authentic, not publiſhed by us, have paſſed unnoticed; We think proper to ſay, as a General Anſwer to ſuch Remarks, That the known Efficacy of the late Mr. Ward's Medicines under the Sanction of Mr. Page, his unparallel'd Generoſity in preſenting them to the Public; the very reaſonable Prices at which they are ſold, owing to the Bounty of our moſt Gracious Sovereign; and the very laudable Purpoſes to which the Profits of the Sale of the ſaid Medicines are applied, viz. the Aſylum and Magdalen Charities; muſt make any other Notice of Perſons, baſe enough to attempt the defeating ſo benevolent and extenſive Deſigns, totally unneceſſary.
